WINE LIST

Champagne

Champagne is a prestigious and protected wine that is both globally recognized and rooted in centuries-old traditions. Champagne is a delimited winemaking region recognized by the Champagne Appellation d'Origine Contrôlée (AOC) label. Harsh climate conditions, the limestone subsoil and its location along natural slopes form the region's distinctive terroir, giving Champagne wines their unique character.

Pinot Noir

Commonly referred to as the “noble grape” or “red burgundy”, Pinot Noir is a blue-tinged grape variety. It originates from Burgundy, France. Younger Pinot Noir’s taste less complex and red fruits notes tend to be the most prominent. As Pinot Noir’s age, their complexity is enhanced, revealing more earthy and smokey mineral notes.
